THE TRUST FUND FOR VICTIMS
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

ASP25 SIDE EVENT

Victims, Environmental Harm and the Future of Reparative Justice at the ICC

THURSDAY 3 DECEMBER 2026, 08:30-09:45
EUROPE 1 & 2, WORLD FORUM, THE HAGUE
Arrival of guests and breakfast from 08:15

3 DEC 2026

How does environmental harm shape the lives of victims of Rome Statute crimes, and how can reparative justice help to repair it? An expert discussion drawing on international law, emerging jurisprudence and comparative experiences, which will help launch a knowledge framework within the TFV on the environmental dimensions of reparative justice.

TOPICS

1. Environmental harm and the Rome Statute
2. Victims and environmental harm
3. Forms of reparation, including ecosystem restoration
4. Designing environmentally responsive reparations programmes
5. Policy and operational implications for the TFV
6. Towards a future policy framework

PROGRAMME

08:15 Arrival of guests and breakfast

08:30 Welcome remarks by Dr. René Värk, Director of International Law Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Estonia

08:35 Keynote speech

08:45 Panel and interactive discussion, moderated by the TFV Executive Director

09:40 Closing remarks by a Member of the TFV Board of Directors

Panel: Judge Phoebe Okowa, International Court of Justice; Reinhold Gallmetzer, Office of the Prosecutor, ICC; Marina Lostal, University of Essex; Mausimi Chetia, University of Amsterdam; Noemi Zenk-Agyei, World's Youth for Climate Justice (WYCJ)

Experiences from Situation Countries: Bangladesh/Myanmar, Darfur, DRC, State of Palestine, Uganda, Ukraine, Others

Co-hosted by Brazil, Estonia, State of Palestine, and Vanuatu and the ICC Trust Fund for Victims

REPUBLIC OF ESTONIA
MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

EMBASSY OF BRAZIL
THE HAGUE

For more information, please contact:
TrustFundforVictims@icc-cpi.int
Date of flyer: 24 November 2026

A paper-light event. Please share this invitation digitally.